Joseph P. St. Louis is a Partner in the Law Firm of Nesci & St. Louis, P.L.L.C., listed as a Tier One firm in U.S. News & World Report’s Best Law Firms in the United States. Joe is the only lawyer in Arizona certified as a specialist in both criminal law (by the Arizona State Bar) and in DUI defense (by the National College for DUI Defense).

James Nesci, is a partner in the Tucson Law Firm Nesci & St. Louis PLLC. He is Dean of the National College for DUI Defense and has been Board Certified since 2001, he is AV Preeminent-Rated by Martindale-Hubbell, and named one of The Best Lawyers in America by Woodward/White. He has caught more than one police officer lying and some officers will not speak to him without their attorneys present.

Anthony Q. Coleman worked for the leadership of the Oklahoma Senate before entering private practice, was the First African-American in state history to serve in this capacity, and first to serve three President Pro Tempores of the Oklahoma Senate within seven years. Mr. Coleman is the first and only African American in Oklahoma history to become a member of the prestigious National College for DUI Defense and is trained in DUI/DWI detection, the Administration of the Standardized Field Sobriety Test, the Intoxilyzer 3000, 5000 and 8,000 and Gas Chromatography.

Donald Ramsell has the proud distinction of having argued Illinois v. Lidster, a DUI/roadblock case, before the United States Supreme Court. In the past 24 years, his law firm has defended over 13,000 drivers. He is Board Certified in DUI Defense; the NCDD State Delegate for Illinois and a Sustaining Member and Regent of the National College for DUI Defense.

Thomas Workman’s technical experience includes over twenty years working in high technology with Xerox, Texas Instruments, Hewlett Packard, Digital Equipment, and Thinking Machines, in management and engineering capacities in R&D, Field Sales and Support, Marketing, Quality, and Manufacturing. His law practice specialty is high technology law -- intellectual property (Patent, Copyright, Trademark, Trade Secret) with a focus on computer and internet law.

Laura Kelsey Rhodes is a founding partner of Albright & Rhodes, LLC, handling criminal and immigration matters in the Washington, D.C. and Maryland courts, both federal and local. She developed her criminal law expertise during seven years with the Maryland Public Defender Office. Ms. Rhodes’ immigration practice focuses on deportation litigation and other areas involving the effect of criminal convictions on immigration status and benefits.
